

Local Option Small Games of Chance Act Permits:

1. PUNCHBOARDS. A punchboard is defined in the Act as a board, placard, or other device marked off in a grid or columns, in which each section contains a hidden number or numbers, or other symbol, which determines the winning changes.
2. PULL-TABS. A pull-tab is defined in the Act as a single folded or banded ticket, or a strip ticket or card with the face covered to conceal one or more numbers or symbols, where one or more of each set of tickets or cards has been designated in advance as a winner.
3. RAFFLES. A raffle is defined by the Act as a game in which a participant buys a ticket for a chance at a prize with the winner determined by a random drawing of corresponding ticket stubs to take place at a location and a date printed on the ticket. There are two types of raffles allowed under the Act: 1) a regular raffle; and 2) a raffle conducted through a special raffle permit. They differ only in the amount of prizes that can be awarded and the number of raffles that may be held per calendar year. Raffle winners may also be determined by reference to drawings conducted by the Department pursuant to the State Lottery Law.
4. DAILY DRAWINGS. A daily drawing is defined by the Act as a game in which a bona fide member of an eligible organization selects or is assigned a number for a chance at a prize with the winner determined by a random drawing to take place at the licensed organization's premises during the same operating day. Daily drawing winners may be determined with the aid of a passive selection device or reference to the State Lottery drawings.
5. WEEKLY DRAWINGS. A weekly drawing is defined by the Act as a game in which a bona fide member selects or receives a number or numbers for a chance at a prize with the winner determined by a random drawing to take place on the eligible organization's premises at the end of the organization's operating week. Weekly drawing winners may be determined with the aid of a passive selection device or reference to State Lottery drawings. A licensed eligible organization may sell more than one chance in a weekly drawing to a bona fide member. However, no chance may be sold for more than $1.00. An eligible organization may not conduct any daily drawings during an operating week in which a weekly drawing is conducted.
6. 50/50 DRAWING. A 50/50 drawing is defined by the Act as a game in which: (1) A participant buys a ticket for a chance to win a prize where the winner is determined by a random drawing of corresponding tickets sold for that drawing. (2) The prize paid to the winner is comprised of one-half of the money collected from tickets from the drawing and the remaining money retained by the eligible organization for distribution in accordance with this Act.

7. POOL. A pool is defined by the Act as a game in which a person pays an entry fee for each chance to win cash or merchandise based on the outcome of an event or series of events wherein the participants in the event or series of events are natural persons or animals, and to which all of the following apply: (1) The maximum number of individuals that may participate in a pool is 100 people. (2) The maximum entry fee for each individual entry in a pool is $20. (3) Other than the entry fee, no other money or thing of value is paid or given for participation in a pool. (4) There is at least one guaranteed winner from among the participants. (5) All entry fees collected for entry into the pool are paid as prizes to one or more participants in the pool. (6) No entry fees or portions thereof are retained by the person or eligible organization operating the pool.
8. RACE NIGHT GAME. A race night game is defined by the Act as a game in which multiple participants place entry fees or wagers on a prerecorded horse race displayed on a single screen to multiple participants simultaneously during a gaming session that does not exceed eight consecutive hours and is not conducted more frequently than once a month.

IF A GAME DOESN'T FIT INTO ONE OF THESE CATERGORIES, IT IS NOT PERMITTED.
