HOUSING CHOICE VOUCHERS PROGRAM

* Housing Choice Vouchers Program –designed to assist low-income families and/or single persons, age 62 and older, and any age individuals with a disability or displaced individuals. The tenant share of the rent is 30%-40% of the tenant’s adjusted annual gross income. (Income includes Social Security, pensions, interest, etc.). The housing assistance payment to the owner is the difference between the family’s share and the contracted rent for the units.

The Reading Housing Authority (RHA) Housing Choice Voucher/Section 8

Private living arrangements, where the voucher recipient can rent anywhere in the City of Reading as the landlord is willing to participate in the program and the property meets the program requirements. A Housing Choice Voucher, obtained through RHA, will be accepted by many private apartment units in the City of Reading.

Berks County Housing Authority (BCHA) Housing Choice Voucher Program

The Berks County Housing Authority’s Housing Choice Voucher Program gives participants a Voucher to find their choice of rental housing units with a private landlord. The Voucher may be used anywhere in Berks County outside the City of Reading.

The following apartment complexes, within the jurisdiction of the Berks County Housing Authority, accept the Housing Choice Voucher. The tenant is not limited to units on this list and may rent unit in the Berks County Housing Authority’s jurisdiction where the landlord is willing to accept the Voucher, subject to BCHA approval.
