Help Shape the Future of Walking and Biking in Berks County!

The Reading Area Transportation Study (RATS), our federally designated Metropolitan Planning Organization, is developing a new Active Transportation Plan to guide future biking and walking investments. Your ideas help ensure the plan reflects real community needs and experiences.

We want to hear from you as we update Berks County's plan for safer, more connected walking and biking options.

Here are the three easiest ways you can get involved—starting now:

1. Attend a Public Meeting on Monday, November 16, 2026
Registration is required for both sessions (https://arcg.is/119bDD1)
• Virtual Meeting
1:00 PM – 2:30 PM
Held via Microsoft Teams

• In-Person Meeting
6:00 PM – 7:30 PM
Berks County South Campus, Multi-Purpose Room
400 East Wyomissing Ave, First Floor, Mohnton, PA 19540

2. Take Our Short Community Survey
If you can't make a meeting—or even if you can—share your thoughts anytime through our survey.
