Agenda Items

1. Review Candidates' Petitions to Cumulate and Cumulate Write-In Votes Cast during the May 16, 2023 Primary Election.

Ms. Norton announced that there were 18,000 write-in votes this Primary. Candidates receive votes as they are registered and can also file Petitions to Cumulate to collect votes on variations of their registered names. Election Services received 60 Petitions to Cumulate.

First Assistant County Solicitor Cody Kauffman announced that the law on variations is permissible, as long as voter intent is last name or sur name. The Election Board can ultimately make the determination on Petition to Cumulate. One point to echo, candidate will automatically get credit for registered name, credit given only one time.
